The University of Kentucky

The University of Kentucky is a place where you can make meaningful contributions to improving people's lives.

- Largest Regional Employer
- Exceptional Benefits
- Wide array of fulfilling opportunities
- Supportive work environment

A Great Way to Continue your Career at The University of Kentucky!

- Since 1978 UK has had its own on-campus temporary staffing department called STEPS.
- STEPS has a reputation among managers on-campus for providing high-quality, dependable solutions to staffing needs.
- STEPS can provide you with -
 - A wonderful opportunity to extend your career post retirement
 - Both full and part time opportunities
 - Flexible Scheduling
 - Competitive pay
 - Retiree Health Insurance

Tips for a Successful Transition

- Talk with your Retirement Officer to understand how working post retirement would affect you.
- There are many variables to consider such as your age at retirement, how many hours you would like to work, what your level of coverage will be, etc.
- Talk with your manager or department administrator to determine their need, if you desire to return to your current department
- Remember to discuss expectations on rate of pay and work schedule with your supervisor

Things To Consider

- All STEPS positions have hourly pay rates
- STEPS Employees are only paid for time worked
- There must be at least one day of separation between your retirement date and return to work date
- A new I-9 may be required
