Appreciation Cards

Directions

1. Print cards out (use card stock if you have it).
2. Trim your selected card using the dotted lines provided.
3. Write your message on the back!

At a loss for what to say?

The best appreciation messages are from the heart. Whether the card is from a supervisor to employee, employee to supervisor or one coworker to another, simply say what you appreciate and why. Even a short message can make a big impact.

Examples:

- You're an amazing person to work with. Your help has made my job so much easier and more enjoyable. I really appreciate your time and effort.
- I've really enjoyed working with you. Thanks for making me enjoy being at work more. You're a great coworker!
- Your approach to your work is unsurpassed. Much of the success of our team is because of your skills and your hard work. We appreciate your time and all you do for us!
- Thank you for always contributing and offering a unique perspective at our team meetings.
- I've been busy lately, but I just had to stop and thank you for being such a great coworker.
- Without you, I couldn't have completed this project. I'm so happy to have you on the team and I can't wait to work on more things together.
- Thank you for being a great colleague and never letting me settle for anything less than best. You push me to do better!
- Thank you for the support you have given me. Your guidance and encouragement help me every day.
